MEMORABILIA

The 1959 Yearbook of Clinton High School

Clinton, Massachusetts

THIS VOLUME OF MEMORABILIA IS DEDICATED TO A MAN

WHO FOR THREE YEARS HAS SKILLFULLY AND UNSELFISHLY CONTRIBUTED

MUCH TIME AND EFFORT TO THE BETTERMENT OF OUR CLASS.

FOR THOSE TIMES WHICH WERE GOOD WE THANK HIM.

FOR THOSE WHICH WERE BAD WE APOLOGIZE TO HIM.

FOR WE ARE SURE THAT HIS SPIRITUAL AND FINANCIAL ADVICE

HAS BETTER PREPARED US TO FACE OUR FUTURE.

IT IS WITH THESE SENTIMENTS THAT WE, THE CLASS OF 1959,

RESPECTFULLY DEDICATE THIS BOOK TO OUR CLASS ADVISOR,

MR. JOSEPH P. BURGWINKLE.

In Memoriam

Acknowledgment of faithful service in the teaching profession always comes too late. The only apparent comparison is derived from the fact that a teacher works with youth in a restless pursuit of knowledge. There is, however, always one teacher who, by his dedication, makes teaching a worthy profession.

It is with great respect and humility that the Class of 1959 pays homage to the memory of Raymond E. Dyer, who in his teaching career, spanning some thirty-five years, served the best interests of this high school and our community. Indeed, when one considers his contributions to community projects, then we have to double the role and value of the man as well as the teacher.

Somehow it is hard to distinguish between the quality of the man and the quality of the teacher. One can see in both these qualities, the good man of the home, the disciplinarian, the genius of being helpful and considerate, the never shirking ideal of saying no to the unqualified, the citizen with the community's best interest at heart, the teacher with strength and breadth of vision, the man with the tremendous capacity for work, the idealist who made things work, and the practical man all united in the corporate form of Raymond E. Dyer, and makes us realize, even in the Atomic Age, the importance of a good man and a good teacher in a most complex society.

In the words of the poet, he symbolizes

"That man is great, and he alone,
Who serves a greatness not his own,
For neither praise no pelf:
Content to know and be unknown:
Whole in himself."

History of the Class of 1959

FRESHMAN YEAR

As Freshmen, things were strange and new,
The corridors and mid-years too;
Boy, were those mid-years ever tough!
Where do the teachers get that stuff?

As graduation day draws nearer, we look back upon those first wonderful days at C. H. S., in September 1955; when we entered as nervous and bewildered Freshmen.

After weathering the storm of inevitable jeers and teasing of the upperclassmen, the feeling of nervousness wore off, we joined the crowd at Guidi's and gained more confidence in ourselves.

We held our first class election under the supervision of Mr. Patrick Hastings, our newly-appointed advisor. To lead our class that first year we chose the following: Peter Regonini, President; Dorothy Pupecki, Vice-President; Michael Duffy, Treasurer; and Betty Ann Notaro, Secretary.

As time wore on, we heard rumors of the terrifying "Mid-Years" and diligently studied for them. When the results were out, the Class of '59 had passed with flying colors. We had been initiated and accepted.

June approached quickly and we eagerly anticipated the long summer vacation, and looked forward to the day when we would become Sophomores.

SOPHOMORE YEAR

As Sophomores we are wiser now;
We tell the naive Freshmen how
To find their fumbling way about;
We're more mature without a doubt.

Once again we returned to Clinton High, as confident Sophomores and met our new advisor, Mr. Joseph Burgwinkle, who capably conducted our second class election. In September 1956, Joe Ryan was chosen Class President and Dorothy Pupecki, Vice-President; Eleanor Joyce, Secretary; and Michael Burdell, Treasurer.

We soon became a part of the social whirl at C. H. S., with many of our classmates joining the various athletic teams and still others taking part of the Thanksgiving Show and Inter-class Dramatics. Dues were collected regularly and our Class Treasury firmly established. Mid-Years held no terror for us now and once again we conquered them.

Another year had passed and the long, carefree days of summer lay ahead. With enthusiasm, we looked toward the future when, as Juniors, we would return once more.

JUNIOR YEAR

We're upperclassmen now, you see,
On the Honor Society, naturally!
We threw a party for the slightest reason,
Our Prom was the highlight of the season.

At last we were upperclassmen and, as eager, excited Juniors, we returned to the now-familiar classrooms. Much wiser to the ways of C. H. S. and its maze of corridors, we happily looked forward to our Junior year and, on Election day, chose Michael Duffy, President; Dorothy Pupecki, Vice-President; Betty Ann Notaro, Secretary; and Michael Burdell, Treasurer.

In February 1958, we lost the main part of Clinton High which had been both a source of constant amazement and good times for us. The fire that destroyed it played an important part in our High School careers, as we were obliged to walk from building to building for classes and were subject to the whim and fancy of "Old Man Weather."

Our Junior Prom was a wonderful affair and the beautiful Oriental theme was a picture of enchantment to all who observed it. With "Sayonara" as a theme and Frankie Dee's orchestra supplying the music, it was truly a wonderful and memorable evening for the Class of '59.

We dutifully paid our dues and watched our Treasury grow. Another fun-filled year had quickly passed and 1959 was not far away.

SENIOR YEAR

We're ready now to face the world,
The banner '59 unfurled.
The singing in the early May,
Rings the warning "Graduation Day."

The peak of success! The worthy and honored title of Senior! We were on top and happier and more excited than ever. Early in the year we held elections and placed our confidence in the following officers: Michael Vice-President; Barbara McNamara, Secretary; and Michael Burdell, Treasurer.

We finished paying our dues and, after the successful sale of Christmas Cards, we planned our Senior Hop. The "Mardi Gras" theme was colorful and exciting, with couples dancing to the wonderful music of Dick Williams, and the gay scene was well remembered by all.

The days passed all too quickly, as we planned and worked on our Yearbook, and awaited the class banquet and trip. Marks were better than ever and every school day was filled with fun.

Spring was upon us and with it came excitment, joy and sadness as the long awaited day of Graduation drew closer. We realized that we were leaving Clinton High School forever, but carrying with us a host of cherished memories of a wonderful class.

Loretta J. Alexandrovich

"Moy seem serious, moy seem shy; but she's full of life, between yau and I."

The first impression one gets of Loretta is that she is quiet and conservative, but to those who really get to know her well, she is full of laughter and fun. Throughout her four years Loretta has managed to keep her marks at an average level and still contribute her share to all the gaiety of social activities. A great deal of her time is spent working as a nurse's aide at the Clinton Hospital in preparation for her future career, which is to be a "Lady in White." We, the Class of '59, wish the best of luck and success to another Florence Nightingale.

Junior Prom Cammittee; Senior Hop Committee; History Circle; Twirler 2; Latin Club; Science Club 2, 3, 4; Kappo Delta Phi.

Nancy A. Allard

"She's conscientiaus and excitable; gaad-natured and likeoble."

Everything about Nancy, her manner, her personality and her smile, is decidedly friendly. Her chief pleasure while at C. H. S. was serving as co-captain of the cheerleaders. However, Nancy also lent her manifold talents to the Thanksgiving Night Shows and to the Octopus. Her willingness to help in all school functions made her a valuable member of our class. Nancy intends to join the "White Parade" after graduation and we feel that our loss will be the medical profession's gain. Good luck, "Nan," from all your classmates.

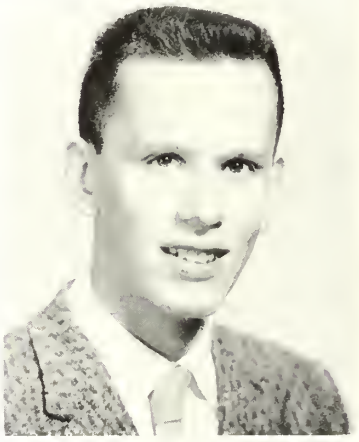
Class Book Staff; Cheerleader 2, 3, (Co-Captain 4); Interclass Dramatics 1; Kappa Delta Phi; Science Club 2, 3, 4 Thanksgiving Show 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' Basketball 2; CHS Headlines (Co-Editar 3, 4); Octapus Staff 1, 2, 3; Class Ring Committee; Junior Prom Committee (General Co-Chairman); Senior Hap Committee; Student Council 3; Christmas Show 1, 2; History Circle; French Club; Dramatic Society 3; Representative to WEIM 4; Exchange Student.

William T. Babcock

Why not go out on a limb? That's where all the fruit is.

Good-looking, with a ruddy complexion and blond hair, describes "Bill." This fellow, whose voice can be heard ringing through the halls of C. H. S., is another senior who was bestowed with the proverbial gift of gab. His readiness for a good time and his wonderful sense of humor have made him popular with all his classmates. "Bill" never misses a school function or a local dance, and is always there to lend a helping hand. Although books don't seem to bother him, he has always managed to keep on the right side of the fence. "Bill's" future plans are undecided. We know, however, he will be a success in whatever field he chooses. Best of luck in the future, "Bill," from the Class of '59.

Octopus Staff; Tau Sigma; History Circle; Juniar Pram Committee.



John A. Boydack

"Run silent, run deep."

The quiet ones are the ones to watch out for! No one, however, worries about "Jack," who's everyone's friend. He's the boy with the overwhelming smile and the keen mind, capable of comprehending the most intricate details. He has earned one of the most coveted honors at Clinton High, "The Harvard Book Award." But there is more than brains in this handsome lad. Among other things there are friendliness and manners, consideration toward every one of his classmates. His dark, striking crew-cut and big brawny frame have made many of the females at C. H. S. take notice of this all-round man. We, the Class of 1959, would like to extend our fondest wishes for a successful and prosperous future. We know that you'll be a success in any profession you undertake.

Michael J. Burdell

"A man who is madest, yet self-possessed; gaad-laaking, athletic and smartly dressed."

"Mike" is one of our outstanding gentlemen and athletes, well-liked by both students and faculty alike. His impressive list of achievements include election as treasurer of his class, co-captain of the football team, and many others too numerous too mention. A rather "Shy-Guy," he nevertheless is one of the most brilliant performers on the gridiron, basketball court, and baseball diamond. Scholastically, "Mike" ranks well up in his class, and although he has not revealed his future plans, the Class of '59 is certain of his success.

Class Treasurer 3, 4; Football 1, 2, 3 (Ca-Captain 4); Basketball 1, 4; Baseball 1, 2, 3 (Co-Captain 4); Bays' State Delegate; Class Ring Committee; Juniar Pram Committee; Senior Hap Committee; Math Club; Science Club; History Circle; Student Cauncil; Ratary Club Delegate; Track 3; Class Book Staff; Tau Sigma.

Sarah E. Burke

To see her is ta like her; ta knaw her is ta love her."

Introducing "Sally," with her sparkling blue eyes, enchanting smile, and vivacious blush. On first glance "Sally" appears to be a quiet sort of girl, but upon further investigation we find her a happy-go-lucky person always taking part in school activities. Throughout her hgh school career she maintained an admirable scholastic record. We feel, with all these characteristics, she will succeed in whatever she sets out to do. She leaves C. H. S. with the best wishes from the Class of '59.

Junior Pram Committee; Science Club; French Club; Latin Club; Student Cauncil; Class Ring Committee; D. A. R. Representative; Kappa Delta Phi (President); Histary Circle; Juniar Marshal; Natianal Honar Society, Class Baok Staff.

Eleanor B. Burzenski

"I'm just as cheerful as my face shows."

"Ellie," as most of us know her, is a fun-loving, cheerful, and friendly girl. She can always be seen at any sports event cheering the "Gaels" on to victory. Wherever laughter or fun can be found, that's where you'll find "Ellie" contributing her special brand of laughter. Nevertheless, "Ellie" has kept her marks above average during her four years at Clinton High School. Although her plans for the future are not certain, we feel sure she will be a great success in whatever field she chooses. Best of luck, "Ellie," from the Class of '59.

History Circle; Kappa Delta Phi; Talent Show; Thanksgiving Show; Octopus Staff; Girls' Basketball; Science Club; Junior Prom Committee; Home Economics Club; Glee Club.

Geneva M. Camerano

"A merry twinkle of the eye, a sunny smile as she passes by."

"Quiet, please!" Does that mean anything to "Gen"? We should say not, for "Gen" certainly cannot be numbered among those who believe that "Silence is Golden." Although she never neglected her studies, she has always found time for recreation and thus given us a glimpse of the humorous side of her grand personality. Cheerfulness and willingness we know are powerful assets to anyone and we are confident that "Gen" will succeed in whatever she undertakes. The Class of '59 wishes for you, Geneva, a successful career in the big league of life.

Salvatore F. Cardillo

"A smile for every occasion."

A bright Latin smile and dark eyes that always seem to have something to say, are the outstanding attributes of this popular North Ender. Although quiet, "Sal" is well-liked by everyone. His kind word and cheery "Hello" for all have made him a great many friends. While in high school "Sal" managed to get average grades along with contributing to the fun and gaiety of social events. Upon graduation "Sal's" plans for the future are still unsettled, but we know with his winning ways he can't help but be a success. Best of luck, "Sal," from the Class of '59.

Tau Sigma; Moth Club; History Circle; Football 4; Junior Prom Committee.

Carolyn C. Carl

"Individuality is the salt of common life."

Carolyn is an attractive Senior miss with a pleasing smile and a pleasant disposition. Her charming manner has succeeded in establishing for her many lasting friendships. She may seem shy, but no matter what she does Carolyn has a wonderful time and everyone with her does, too. She has a sparkling personality, a good sense of humor and is always ready with a friendly smile and an encouraging word for everyone. After school she can be seen working in Harpin's Restaurant where she is a very popular waitress. Carolyn's plan for the future is to become a teacher and we, the Class of '59, wish her the best of luck.

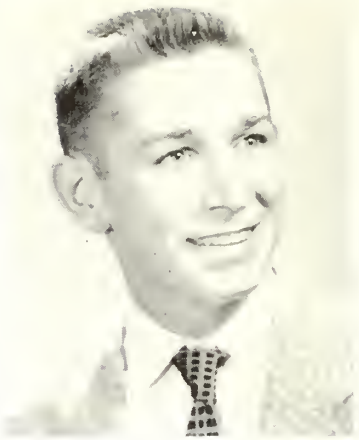
James P. Cecchini



Never trouble trouble, till trouble troubles you.

Jimmy is one lad who needs no introduction for he is known and well-liked by all. Although he may sometimes give the apperance of quietness, he has a clever wit which has provided us with many hilarious moments. Even though he came to us in the middle of his Junior year he made right in with everyone and won for himself some everlasting friendships. Though studying wasn't one of his specialties he managed to come through with average marks in every class. Not knowing what "Jim" is going to do in the future, we, the Class of '59, wish him the best of luck in whatever he chooses, for if he stays like he is now he is bound for success.

Football 1 Band 1; Junior Prom Committee; Tau Sigma; Senior Hop Committee; History Circle.

Robert J. Chapman

"I burn my candle at both ends; it shall not last the night."

"Bob," or "Chappy," as he is often referred to, has basked in the glory of many honors during his four short years at Clinton High. Governor's Council Representative and National Honor student, he has acquired successfully the unbeatable combination of intelligence and personality, a combination which should carry him far. "Bob" has aspirations of becoming a dentist. All we can say is that if he continues to show the academic and social know-how in college that he has shown in High School, he cannot fail. Good luck, "Bob," from the Class of '59.

Charles G. Chiavaras

"Warry never did men ony good."

Here is "Connie," known to most as "Dino." An easygoing, carefree guy without a worry in the world. His interests are varied. He is an ardent sports fan and enjoys dancing. He can usually be found at most of our high school activities and always lends a helping hand whenever it is needed. "Dino" is not the studious type by any means, but manages to get by with passing grades. His ready wit and pleasing personality are only two of the many qualities possessed by this young man. Although he has no plans as yet for the future, we know he will be a success in whatever he undertakes. With him, he takes all the best wishes of the Class of '59.

Maryanne V. Cislak

"A quiet monner hides the mischief in her eyes."

Maryanne may seem very quiet to some, but those who know her well know different. She is one of C. H. S.'s few striking blondes and an ex-twirler. Want to know who's in the show? Ask Maryanne—she'll know! Even though Maryanne spent a great deal of her time selling tickets at the Strand, she was always present to support all school functions. In her four years at C. H. S., she has made many friends. She has mastered the commercial course, and we know she'll make some lucky boss a fine secretary. Best of luck, Maryanne, from the Class of '59.

Twirler 1, 2, 3; Koppo Delta Phi; Thanksgiving Show 1; Junior Prom Committee; Senior Hop Committee; Closs Book Staff; History Circle; Octopus Staff; Glee Club.

Margaret Clark

"Johnnie come lately and gone too soon."

Soft brown hair, dazzling eyes, and a smile as bright as sunshine are three of the more recent lighting facilities acquired from "Margie" Clark for the halls of C. H. S. She is one of Clinton High's more recent and most valuable assets. Though "Margie" has just come to us in our last year she has already gathered a host of friends and admirers. It is really too bad that she could not have stayed longer, but if she must leave we are glad she is coming with us. We would hate to leave such a treasure behind. "Margie" plans to "tie the knot" in the near future and we all envy the lucky man. The Class of '59 gives to her our sincere wishes for a very happy future.

History Circle; Koppo Delto Phi; Senior Hop Committee; Octopus Staff.

Carolyn E. Coccione

"Gentlemen prefer blondes."

Pert, popular, and petite are three P's that hide their heads in shame at their inadequacy to describe the loveliness of this Van Brode secretary. Talented as well as popular, Carolyn has lent her charm and acting ability to most of the school's dramatic productions. No matter what the class project, Carolyn may be found leading a line of enthusiastic and admiring boosters. Her consistently high testimonial grades have won for her an appointment as a St. Vincent nursing candidate. The Class of '59 bids her a fond last farewell and wishes her all the success possible.

Carole A. Cooper

"Cheerful, friendly, coy; filling her componions' heorts with joy."

Who is that frightened Freshman, shy Sophomore, jolly Junior who became that slightly sophisticated Senior? None other than Carole. Carole has never worried much about studying, because worry only causes wrinkles and who wants wrinkles? Carole can be found at all the football games, heading the trumpet section of the C. H. S. Band. However, her greatest asset is her engaging sense of humor which diffuses an atmosphere of good will and produces merry laughter among her associates. She enjoys life thoroughly and is an all-round good sport in every sense of the word. Best of luck in the future, Carole, from the Class of '59.

Sandra L. Cooper

"A smile for oll, o welcome glod; o joviol, cooxing woy she hod."

When you first meet "Sandy," she seems rather shy, but when you really get to know her, you'll find that she isn't so retiring after all. As a matter of fact, she's rather mischievous! "Sandy's" sure to be found at all social activities, lending a helping hand, and if not, just having a good time. Although "Sandy" is undecided as to the future, we feel that she will succeed and be a credit to the Class of '59.

Inez M. Cravedi

Mischief and humor will keep me free;
But as for studies — they bother me.

Inez and mischief walk hand in hand. For wherever there is laughter and fun, we know Inez is not far away. A very classy dresser, she delights in introducing the newest fads and styles. Inez can usually be found behind the register at Cravedi's Market or driving one of their many cars. She is planning to enter Airline School where, with her warm smile and pleasing personality, we know she will be a success. Best of luck, Inez, from the Class of '59.

Kappa Delta Phi; Junior Prom Committee; Girls' Basketball; History Circle; Science Club.

Peter J. Cucchi

Oh, what may within him hide, thou angel, on the outward side.

Small, good-looking, and an ever-present crew-cut describe this popular member of our class. "Pete" is full of fun and always has a mischievous twinkle in his eyes. His days are never dull for when not attending school he can be found behind the counter at Hasting's Drug Store. He is known by all for his wit and unchanging disposition. All in all, "Pete" is a likeable, easygoing guy, and a great friend. His plans for the future are uncertain, but to him go all the best wishes for luck from the Class of '59.

Tau Sigma; History Circle; Math Club.

John R. DeCesare

"If work interferes with play, drop work."

Here is "Jackie," one of our most popular and likeable Seniors whose carefree manner is hard to match. With his cheery smile and ready friendliness he has won for himself a host of friends. Although a great follower of sports and every activity in the class, "Jack" has managed to keep his grades within the safety zone. He may be found working afternoons at the Blackstone Plush. Although his future plans are indefinite, "Jackie" can leave C. H. S. with the assurance that all of '59's good wishes go with him.

Boseball 1, 2, 3, 4; History Circle; French Club; Tau Sigma; Junior Prom Committee; Math Club; Science Club; Latin Club.

Thomas P. DeCesare

"A little nonsense now and then is relished by the best of men."

"Tom," who is better known as "Cez," is another one of the California Court boys. His good looks and curly hair, along with his big smile, makes him a friend to all. His afternoons are spent working as an office boy at the Colonial Press. Although his time seems very occupied he is always present at any of the social events and he can be seen riding to and from them in his 1951 black Chevy. "Tom" is uncertain about his future plans but we know he will be a success in whatever he chooses. Best of luck, "Tom," from the Class of '59.

Tau Sigma; History Circle.

Janice B. Desautels

'Dork hoir, shining eyes; here's o miss we idolize.'

Always a smile, always a laugh, it could be none other than Janice, an attractive, blue-eyed girl who hails from Pleasant Street. Her pleasing manner and sweet personality will be missed by all. During the afternoons she can be found working at the Blackstone Mills. A school function wouldn't seem complete without "Jan," for her spirit and gaiety always adds so much more to the fun. Janice's primary plans for the future are to attend a business school. Hence, the Class of '59 wishes her the best of luck and success in the future.

Octopus Staff; Glee Club; History Circle; Koppo Delto Phi; Junior Prom Committee; Senior Hop Committee; Closs Book Staff.

Loretta M. Dickhaut

"Dork brown eyes, ond shiny block hoir,
She goes through life without o core."

Loretta is a vivacious, loquacious lass, who is always full of fun and pep. Her cheery smile and friendly personality have won her many friends at C. H. S. Her favorite pastime is dancing and she can often be found tripping the light fantastic at many of the local hops. Although Loretta is the carefree type she has still managed to keep up her grades. Loretta's main ambition is to become a nurse, and with all her fine qualities how can she help but be a great success. Best of luck, Loretta, from the Class of '59.

Koppo Delto Phi; History Circle; Girls' Bosketboll 1; Science Club; Junior Prom Committee; Senior Hop Committee.

Walter J. Duchnowski

"A true sport in every sense of the word."

"Duke," as he is known to his many friends, hails from the California district. A very friendly chap, he has a cheery smile and a hearty "Hi" for everyone he meets. His favorite pastime is fishing, but he takes time out from this to hold down a starting position on the baseball nine each spring. "Duke" is also a very talented artist and intends to develop this talent as an Architectural Engineer. The Closs of '59 wishes you every success in this endeavor, "Duke."

"An outstonding othlete, one of the best by for,
C. H. S. mode you whot you ore."

"Mike" is one of the most popular and versatile members of our class, as attested by the fact that he was elected President of our class for the past two years. A three letter man as well, he was chosen one of our gridiron leaders and also starred on the basketball court and baseball diamond. His activities are by no means confined to athletics, as he is very much in evidence at all our social functions. "Duff" has also managed to achieve respectable marks, and although his future plans are still uncertain, we know he's headed for success. Best of luck, "Mike," from '59.

Robert T. Duggan

"Study makes for weariness of the mind."

Bob, who hails from the High Street district, is known for his quiet demeanor. His cheerful manner and friendliness toward everyone have made him one of the more popular boys at C. H. S. He can be seen afternoons working tirelessly as the right-hand man at our local First National Store. A firm supporter of all our activities, "Bob" can always be counted on to help out whenever it is needed. His plans for the future are as yet undecided, but we know that such a diligent and conscientious lad can't help but be a success. Best of luck, "Bob," from the Class of '59.

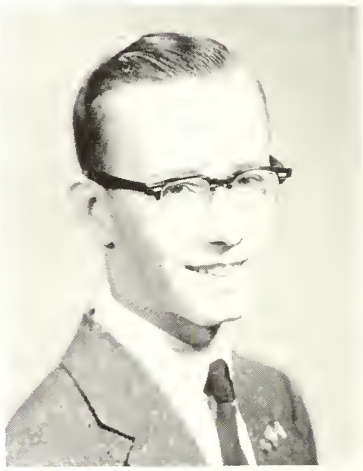
Walter C. Dunn



"None but himself could be his parallel."

Now we introduce Walter, the studious-looking young man with the ever-present briefcase, filled to capacity. Walter's interests were varied while at C. H. S. He devoted his spare time diligently to dramatics, the band, management of the basketball team, and also found time to assume various and sundry duties in the office. Nevertheless, he maintained a creditable average in all of his subjects. Walter intends to enter the ministry by way of Harvard University and we all hope that he will find success and satisfaction in his lofty aspirations. Best of luck, Walter, from the Class of '59.

"Tall, blonde, happy-go-lucky as can be;
Full of quips for everyone she sees.

This gay, carefree, fun-loving Senior is one of our most ardent sports fans. "Liz" can be seen at all school functions and is never missed at any of the dances. During the afternoon, this lass can be seen behind the candy counters at the Strand, passing a big smile with every candy bar. For the past four years, she has been among the top ten, scholastically, a tremendous accomplishment. Her future plans include a teaching career and we know with her pleasing manner and sparkling smile, she can't help but be a success. Best of luck, "Liz," from the Class of '59.

"A pretty girl, a charming lass; full of fun with lots of class."

"Maggie," as she is known to all her friends, is an attractive Senior miss with a bright smile and pleasant disposition. You will find her a participant in all school functions and activities. In addition to being very active in extra-curricular activities, "Maggie" has also maintained a high scholastic average during her four years at C. H. S. She spends her afternoons working at the Colonial Press. Margaret plans to enter Fitchburg State Teachers College, and we, the Class of '59, wish her the best of luck.

"Prettiness blended with bliss, describes this Senior miss."

One of our most understanding and serious-minded Seniors is "Sandi." This lass can be found whenever and wherever a helping hand is needed. Always ready with a few words, and a big smile to cheer you up, "Sandi" has made many good and true friends. She is among our most faithful band members and many a time we wouldn't have marched if it wasn't for "Sandi." Her cheerful nature has helped many a patient at Clinton Hospital where she works as a nurses' aid. This experience will help her to accomplish her life's ambition which is to become a beautiful "Lady in White." Many wishes for your future success, "Sandi," from the Class of '59.

Michael J. Flaherty

"Variety is the spice of life — let's live."

Next we come to "Mike," a friendly and likeable character, who came to us in our Senior year. "Mike's" personality and wit has won him many friends at C. H. S. His unaffected manner has helped in many a class activity and his presence is always welcomed at any of the social functions. Although studying is one of the least of his worries he still manages to attain average marks. "Mike's" future plans are indefinite as yet, but we, his class, know he will be a success in whatever he undertakes. Best of luck and success from the Class of '59.

William R. Flannagan

"The thirst for knowledge cannot be quenched."

"Bill" is another of Burditt Hill's fine contributions to Clinton High. A conscientious student, he has compiled an enviable scholastic record, while still finding time to participate in all school functions and activities. "Bill" had a special devotion to the Science Fair and could always be counted upon for a very novel and interesting exhibit. Moreover, he still found time to hold down a job at the Wovencraft and was a familiar sight each evening heading for the Post Office laden with packages. "Bill's" plans include a college education and we are certain that he will be a huge success. Best of luck, "Bill," from the Class of '59.

"Some think the world is made for fun and frolic — and so do I."

Another one of Germantown's fine contributions to C. H. S. is "Ronnie." A carefree, conscientious boy who possesses a quiet wit that makes him pleasant to get along with. An ardent radio enthusiast, he usually spends his spare time working on or fixing the variety of radios which he possesses. Although not the studious type, "Ronnie" still manages to get along without any difficulty. He plans to enter Worcester State Teachers College next year, and the best wishes of the Class of '59 go with him in his chosen field.

Dark hair and shining eyes; he's the man we idolize."

Mike, an Acre-ite, spends most of his hours working on his car. "Mike" always has a ready "Hi" or "Toot" for everyone, which has won him many friends at Clinton High. A lover of cars, "Mike" has always had the nicest-looking car around. He never ducks excitement, and can usually be seen riding with a bunch of fun-loving kids. Sometimes he studies, sometimes he doesn't. He has a rare sense of humor which, along with his friendly manner, will make him a winning success in the future. The Class of '59 wishes you lots of luck, "Mike."

Joyce L. George

"Her gay repartee is a delight to us all."

When you first meet Joyce she seems shy, but when you really get to know her you will find that she isn't shy at all. She is one of Greeley Hill's very attractive contributions to Clinton High. Joyce was one of Miss Gannon's most accomplished young typists and was instrumental in getting our Yearbook material to the publisher before the deadline. Her cheerful smile adds to her pleasant personality which has helped to light up all the social events which she attended. Her plans for the future are indefinite, but the Class of '59 wishes her the best of luck in whatever she chooses.

"Take things as they come; that's my philosophy."

"Frannie," as he is called by all, is one of the quietest of the Senior boys. His willingness to give a helping hand to any class activity or a ride to any one of his friends has made him popular with all groups. Although books and studies never bothered him he always managed to get by with a smile. He spends most of his time at Maurie's or managing the basketball team. "Frannie" is liked by all. So far his plans for the future are indefinite, but we know with his natural way and pleasant personality he will be a success. Lots of luck, "Frannie," from the Class of '59.

True beauty is the essence of all life worthwhile."

Dark eyes have been immortalized in song and story, but we in Clinton High have an even more vivid reminder, the sparkling eyes of "Petie" Gibbons. "Petie" came to us in her Junior year, but she has already built up a huge store of extra-curricular achievements, highlighted by her appointment as Queen of the Junior Prom. Her unending list of talents and aptitudes may lead her into any field of endeavor, but whatever she chooses we are sure that it will be as exciting and original as "Petie" herself. The Class of '59 wishes her all the best.

Eileen A. Lahti

Many a thy gifts, but better than all gifts is thy friendship.

Outwardly, this young miss is one of the quiet members of our class, but she is known to her friends as fun-loving and sociable. Eileen pays little attention to books and studying, for her spirit is uncontrollably nonchalant and light-hearted. Through this friendly manner, we find an amusing mischievous streak which makes her a truly delightful person to know. Eileen's plans are to enter Boston University, and we give her all our best wishes for success in the future.

"The athletic type we all adore; each day we like him more and more."

Meet "Dickie," the Senior lad who has all the girls in a dither! "Dickie" came to us in our Junior year from Bromfield Academy in Harvard. Tall, handsome, intelligent, an outstanding athlete, and personality — what more could you ask for? But beneath all his fine characteristics you'll find a happy-go-lucky guy, ready to lend a hand and a laugh to any activity, whether it be in class, in sports, or at social functions. "Dickie" is famous for his pigskin passing on the Green and Gold team, his ability on the basketball court and, well, he's just about another Ted Williams on the baseball diamond. He plans to go to college and with his personality plus we know some day we'll be able to say, "I graduated with that successful man!" Best of luck, "Dick," from the Class of '59.

Carol J. McGinnis

"She's little but she's wise, she's a terror for her size."

Short, mature, and full of fun, with a cheerful smile for everyone is probably the best way to describe Carol. Carol is exceedingly popular with everyone. This can be attributed to her amiability and general consideration for the rights of others. A delightful, amiable person with a lively sense of humor and discriminating tastes—she likes Cadillacs and other attractive things—she has helped to brighten many an otherwise dull day. Although her plans for the future are indefinite, we, the Class of '59, wish her the very best of luck.

"A strang athlete, a mon rightly plonned; speed, wit, and mirth at his cammand."

See that tall, brawny, good-looking lad ambling from class to class? "It's none other than "Bernie." Popular with all and continuously seen with a "truck" load of friends in his rattling Chevy. Ever present at all school activities, his dry wit has added greatly to the gaiety of his surroundings. Always careful not to overtax the brain he has, nevertheless, kept his grades well above the waterline. "Bernie's" source of revenue is provided by the A & P. After graduation he plans to enlist in the armed forces and the Class of '59 wishes him the best of luck and success in the future.

"It's a friendly heart that has plenty of friends."

Introducing "Barb," a petite, radiantly vivacious lass whose winning personality has won her many a lifelong friendship at C. H. S. Her busy schedule, which takes in working at Hasting's Drug Store and participation in all of the high school's activities, has not in any way affected her grades, as she has attained a well-above-average scholastic record while attending Clinton High. An exquisite dresser, "Barb's" wardrobe is the envy of her classmates. Her future plans include a college career and the Class of '59 wishes her luck and success always.

Brian J. Shaughnessy

"Give me the moonlight and give me the girl."

Introducing Brian, a stellar guard on our football team. Brian's liking for a good time is known to all, for his sense of humor and ready smile is welcome anywhere and among all groups. His interest in all school functions is shown by his many activities and his participation in all social events. Although never loaded down with books, Brian always managed to receive average grades. Upon graduation, Brian plans to enter college. We, the Class of '59, know he will be a success and wish him the best of luck.

Robert L. Silvester

A good athlete and a good friend.

"An athlete and a gentleman," describes this lad, who hails from Bolton. To the casual observer "Bob" is quiet and reserved, but we who know him well know that this conclusion is inaccurate. Average size, he proved looks are deceiving, as many times No. 26 could be seen bulling his way up the middle of the line on another one of his patented touchdown runs. "Bobby" plans to attend college upon graduation and with his ability we know he will be a success. Good luck, "Bob."

Science Club, Tau Sigma, Football, Baseball, History Circle; Junior Prom Committee; Senior Hop Committee; Class Ring Committee, Science Club.

Ralph E. Sleeper

"Noise is not necessary for success.

Serious-minded, well-mannered, and good-natured is Ralph. This slim lad with the affinity for silence is known and liked by all his classmates. He is seen driving to all social and athletic events in the ever-popular blue car. His ambitious perseverance has succeeded in bringing him good grades throughout his career at C. H. S. Ralph's destiny is not known to us at the present, but we are certain that with his fine qualities he is bound to succeed in whatever field he chooses. The best of luck and success go to you, Ralph, from the Class of '59.

Tau Sigma, History Circle; Glee Club; Junior Prom Committee; Math Club; Science Club; Senior Hop Committee; Class Book Staff.

Karen L. Sorel

"Order is a lovely thing.

Karen, one of the most popular girls in the Senior Class, has also been an above-average student during her four years at C. H. S. Her coy manner belies her faculty for mischief and merrymaking, which are her specialties. An enthusiastic supporter of all school functions, this trim, slim Senior could be found at all athletic and social events when she wasn't busy punching a cash register at our local Super Market. She plans to become a "Lady in White" and we know she will be a success. Best of luck, Karen, from the Class of '59.

Basketball 1, 2; Latin Club; Math Club; National Honor Society; Junior Prom Committee (Chairman); Class Book Staff; Senior Hop Committee; History Circle; Kappa Delta Phi; Science Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Junior Marshal; Class Ring Committee.

Robert L. St. John

Work is all right if you have the time for it,
But it's a heck of a way to make a living."

"Bobby" is that dark good-looking type you'd think would get the good-looking girls, and he does! Although he looks quiet and unassuming, you can't judge a book by its cover. "Saint," as he is known to his buddies, hails from the Acre district and can usually be seen with his "crew" at all the games and social affairs. During the afternoon he can be found working at the Colonial Press as an office boy. His ready wit and terrific sense of humor has made "Bob" well-liked by all. Although he has not yet decided what he will do after graduation, we are sure he will succeed in whatever he chooses. Best of luck, "Bob," from the Class of '59.

History Circle, Tau Sigma; Junior Prom Committee; Science Club; German Club; Senior Hop Committee; Science Fair.

Virginia M. Tatro

'A certain dignity of manner.'

Next we come to Virginia, blonde, blue-eyed and charming. Her friendly "Hi" and happy wit have won her many friends at C. H. S. She has done more than her share in extra-curricular activities, and also can be seen bringing daily school notices from building to building. Her plans for the future are to attend Bryant College in Rhode Island, and we, the Class of '59, wish you, Virginia, all the success in the world.

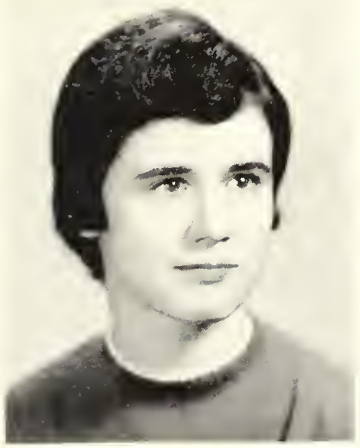
Science Club; Glee Club; History Circle; Kappa Delta Phi; Junior Pram Committee; Senior Hop Committee; Class Book Staff; Science Fair.

Patricia H. Tessier

"Serious or gay, whiche'er it be, Pat is always good company."

A pleasing mixture of humor and good nature makes up "Pat," a Senior miss who has made a host of friends during her high school career. Reliability and a desire to help others are among her many qualities. Fond of social activities and sports, her enthusiasm and vivacity have kept her active in both. While at C. H. S., "Pat" has managed to achieve testimonial grades in her commercial course by diligent study. "Pat's" plans include making some lucky boss a good secretary and we know she will succeed. Best of luck, "Pat," from the Class of '59.

Science Club; Science Fair; History Circle; Junior Pram Committee; Senior Hop Committee; Class Book Staff; Kappa Delta Phi; Glee Club; Civic Club.

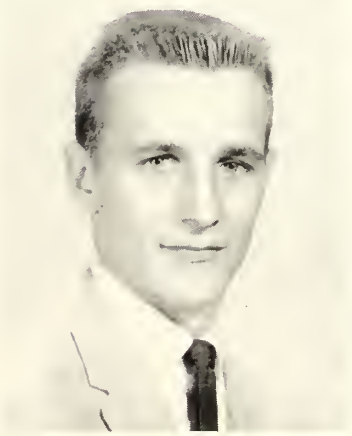


Ann M. Thompson

"Work fascinates me — I can sit and watch it for hours."

Ann is the Senior lass with shiny black hair, who hails from Burditt Hill. "Always laughing, always gay; you'll find me that way every day!" That's "Annie's" motto. Ann is an enthusiastic sports fan and can always be seen cheering the team on to victory. She's a good student, but thinks her books are too heavy so she never carries them home. More than likely, she can be seen sitting in Harpin's or riding around. Ann plans to go to college, but her career is indefinite. With her go the best wishes of the Class of '59.

Kappa Delta Phi; History Circle; Math Club; Junior Prom Committee.



Terrence P. Tor

"Not that I love study less, but leisure more."

Introducing "Terry," as he is well-known by everyone in C. H. S. This good-looking blond idol of all the girls, hails from the North End. Very popular and well-liked by all, "Terry" is an outstanding dancer as well as a terrific athlete. He is always the life of any party, and one is never complete without him. But behind this happy-go-lucky manner "Terry" is a sincere and honest friend, always willing to give a helping hand when it is needed, without a second thought. Although his future is indefinite, with these qualities and his winning personality and disposition, "Terry" will be a success in any field that he chooses. Best of luck, "Terry," from the Class of '59.

Football 3, 4; History Circle; Tau Sigma; Economics Club.

Francis P. Turini

"If at first you don't succeed, try again."

This easygoing lad comes to us from the famous Duck Harbor district. A devoted hunter, "Frannie" nevertheless took enough time off from his favorite pastime to maintain passing grades in school and hold down a job at the Empire Furniture Co. at the same time. While his plans for the future are not available to us at this time, the Class of '59 wishes him a full measure of success in all of his endeavors.

Tau Sigma; Science Club; History Circle; Junior Prom Committee.

Lois E. Utley

"Blonde hair and blue eyes, certainly are an artist's prize."

Lois, a petite blonde with sparkling eyes, hails from Clinton's North End. She has led the C. H. S. band as majorette for the past two years and has displayed some brilliant performances with her magic baton. A staunch supporter of both social and athletic events, she can always be depended upon to make them a huge success. Her pleasing personality has won her a host of friends and has made her one of the most popular members of our class. Lois plans to take up hairdressing upon graduation and we are sure she will be a success. With her go the best wishes of the Class of '59.

Girls Basketball 1, 2 (Captain 2), Kappa Delta Phi; Thanksgiving Show 1, 2, 3, 4; Junior Prom Committee; Senior Hop Committee; Class Book Staff; Twirler 1, 2; Drum Majorette 3, 4.

John N. Vattes

"A man of few words is a man well spoken."

John is one of those very quiet people who is very popular with all his classmates. However, this quality does not conceal the congenial, good-natured disposition which has won him a host of friends at C. H. S. In his quiet unobtrusive way he assisted whenever needed, and was a very welcome sight at all athletic and social events. John's plans for the future are uncertain, but whatever he decides to do the Class of '59 wishes him the best of luck always.

Tau Sigma; Senior Hop Committee; History Circle.

Joseph J. Vitone

"Good nature, what a blessing."

"Joe," who hails from the Burditt Hill district is one of our most dependable and reliable young men. He is quiet but not solemn, friendly and gentlemanly at all times. "Joe" holds a position with the Christie & Thompson organization, but does not let this interfere with his social activities. He is a serious, diligent student who intends to pursue a career in teaching and the Class of '59 wishes him every success in his endeavors.

Tau Sigma; History Circle; Math Club; Latin Club; French Club.

Mary F. Walsh

'Be friendly with the folks you know.''

We now introduce Mary, a likeable girl with a good-natured disposition, who comes from Greeley Hill. She is never seen without a smile and a cheery "Hello," which has won her many friends at Clinton High. She is an ardent supporter of all school activities, whether they be social or athletic. After graduation, Mary plans to pursue a teaching career and we are sure that she will meet with great success. The entire Class of '59 joins in wishing you a bright, successful future, Mary.

Junior Prom Committee; History Circle; French Club; Sewing Circle; Science Club; Koppo Delta Phi; Senior Hop Committee.

Rosemary Walsh

''Rosemary's humor so natural and gay, will help to brighten many a day.''

One of our most popular Acreites, Rosemary is never seen without one of her many friends. Her easygoing manner and good nature is welcome to any group and enjoyed by all. She is seen at all class affairs and sports events, always ready to get into the spirit of things or lend a helping hand. During her high school career Rosemary has attained average grades without too much effort. Although her future plans have not yet been revealed, we're sure she will be a success in whatever she undertakes. Best of luck, Rosemary, from the Class of '59.

Junior Prom Committee; Kappa Delta Phi; History Circle; Science Club 2, 4 Class Book Staff; Thanksgiving Show.

Elizabeth M. Wiencek

''A true friend is a friend forever.''

Willingness and prettiness just seem to go perfect with "Betty." She has impressed us all as a diligent and personable student with impeccable taste in clothes. "Betty's" avid interest in sports made her a frequent spectator at Clinton High sports events. She was also a loyal supporter of all social functions. In short, "Betty" was an outstanding member of the Class of '59 and carries with her our best wishes for a successful career as a Laboratory Technician.

Latin Club; Science Club; Thanksgiving Show 2, 3; Class Ring Committee; Junior Prom Committee; Senior Hop Committee; Student Council 2, 3; Kappo Delta Phi; Class Book Staff; History Circle.

Janet H. Winn

''A silent creature, thoughtful and sincere.''

Janet is one of the quieter girls in the Senior Class, but well-liked by everyone. Sincere, friendly, and genuine, she always has a pleasant word and smile for all. Her easygoing amiability is always welcomed at the social and athletic events held at Clinton High. She can be seen frequently in Harpin's with the gang. Upon graduation she plans to enter the secretarial field and we all know with her earnest ways and ready smile she will be a success in her endeavors. Good luck, "Jan," from the Class of '59.

Kappa Delta Phi; Junior Prom Committee; Octopus Staff; Glee Club; History Circle; Senior Hop Committee.

Richard E. Witgenstein

"A likeable lad with likeable ways."

Well-liked, popular, full of fun, handsome and well-dressed. These words could describe none other than "Dick." Never one for books or a great deal of study, Dick always managed to achieve passing grades. He can always be seen riding around in a '54 Oldsmobile or working at Walter's Photo Lab. His future plans are as yet undecided, but whatever career or field he chooses, we know he will be a success. Good luck, "Dick," from the Class of '59.

Tau Sigma; Junior Prom Committee; History Circle; Science Club.

James M. Young

"The quiet men are the great men."

To the casual observer "Jimmie" is quiet and reserved, but we who have known him through the past four years are positive that this conclusion is erroneous. His easy manner and amiability have succeeded in winning him a host of lifelong friends. "Jim's" working hours are spent at St. John's School after which he can be found at any social event sponsored by C. H. S. "Jimmie's" plans for the future include a college education and we are sure with his intelligence and perseverance that he will be a success in every sense of the word. Best of luck, "Jim," from the Class of '59.

Tau Sigma; History Circle; Science Club; Math Club; German Club; Junior Pram Committee; Senior Hop Committee.

Joseph C. Zelny

"His strength is as the strength of ten, because his heart is pure."

On looking at "Joe," you see a rather shy, good-looking lad whose maxim is, "Better to be seen than to be heard," and a familiar and welcome sight he was, in his green Chevy, whenever anyone needed a ride. "Joe's" plans for the future are indefinite, but we are sure that with the terrific personality and winning ways which he displayed during the past four years, he is destined for success. Good luck, "Joe," from the Class of '59.

Tau Sigma; History Circle; Math Club.

Class Song...

Tune of "For All We Know"

I

We laughed and played as the years went slipping by;
And now the time has come to say goodbye.
Though our fond farewells may echo forever,
We know in our hearts that we can't return ever.
And when we've gone and we cross the timeless seas,
Our school stays on and will haunt our reveries.
So when teardrops start we won't be afraid of them,
This evening was made for them,
So let them flow.

II

For all we know we may never meet again;
And though we know that tonight must mean an end,
We'll travel the ways in different directions,
But remember these years in loving affection.
We'll think of Proms and of parties, and the games,
And each new year brings a memory of old names.
We're wishing tonight tomorrow would never come,
Though it may mean less to some;
We hate to go,
For we may never meet again for all we know.

Class Prophecy . . .

Let's take a look into the future with a book to read.
To forget the past, and satisfy curiosity's need.
The "Book of Life" it happens to be:
This is the story of you and me.
In the year nineteen hundred and eighty-three.
These are our futures as they will be.

Feeling sick? Call on Alexandrovich, Miss Loretta,
As a "Lady in White" you'll find none better.

A school for Cheerleaders, Nancy Allard runs,
Hard work and training are mixed with fun.

Of the army, Billy Babcock had no fear,
He decided to make it his career.

John Boydack as a great engineer,
Of high buildings and towers he has no fear.

Mike Burdell, as our treasurer was famously known,
Now he spends his time printing money . . . his own.

Sally Burke is now a teacher,
Of the "Golden Rule" she is a preacher.

As Dean of Women in a large college,
Ellie Burzenski displays a vast knowledge.

Geneva Camerano's cementing human relations,
As an interpreter of the United Nations.

Says rumors, Sal Cardillo's a spy,
Working for our F.B.I.

Carolyn Carl's reputation daily grows,
As a well-known model of ladies' hose.

James P. Cecchini, former classmate,
Is now a senator from our fair state.

We hail Bob Chapman with a shout,
If our teeth are bad, he pulls them out.

Connie Chiavaris we may see,
He is now a comedian on TV.

Secretarial work is Mariann Cislak's line,
And we hear she is really doing fine.

Soon to be in the blissful state of marriage,
Margaret Clark need not disparage.

Carol Coccione, a modern Florence Nightingale,
From the portals of CHS . . . once she did hail.

From toil Carole Cooper was never a shirker,
So now she's become a social worker.

Sandy Cooper, a real cute trick,
Wheeling a baby carriage she sure looks chic.

Inez Cravedi has a flair,
For designing clothes for any affair.

As a financier of national fame,
Peter Cucchi now has a great name.

Jack DeCesare with his millions has bought,
A hundred-foot, green-and-gold yacht.

If you see a black Chevy cruising around,
That's where Tom Decesare can still be found.

If you want your books kept correct and neat,
Hire Janice Desautels . . . she can't be beat.

Loretta Dickhaut will mend many a bone,
Heal her patient and send him home.

Bob Duggan took Davy Crockett's place,
He's now "King of the Wild Frontier" . . . in space.

Walt Duchanowski's hobby remains the same,
He is now an artist of much fame.

Mike Duffy, our former president,
Of the White House he is now a resident.

Walter Dunn's expedition leaves soon,
His destination? Why, of course, the MOON!

Liz Ellam is now a socialite,
She gives gala parties every night.

Maggie Enright upholds the good rule,
In a little country school.

Sandy Evergates is a woman in white,
We understand she's the Dr.'s delight.

Mike Flaherty bet on a sure thing,
Training horses is his favorite fling.

Bill Flannagan, a statesman of renown,
Has brought much credit to his hometown.

Ronald Furmanick's a popular radio broadcaster,
Lowell Thomas' fame did not come faster.

Mike Garreffi is a mechanic's delight,
He'll repair your car any hour of the night.

Lorraine George can now be seen,
Operating an I.B.M Machine.

Franny Gibbons now drives a "Golden Ford,"
He just won "Best Driver of the Year" award.

Petie Gibbons' career she found in law,
Her cases, like she, never show a flaw.

Angie Ginas, an international sport,
Has a girl in every port.

Dotty Goguen, good from the start,
Is now working in Commercial Art.

Elaine Griffin and Joyce Harmon, in a partnership strong,
Are now seen traveling happily along.

Barbara Hamilton has made her name,
As an Interior Decorator of national fame.

Jean Hastings, cute and neat,
Is still having parties that can't be beat.

Bill Hauver has quite a position,
He's now a first-rate electrician.

Jim Hopkins is a menace to crime,
His exposes are featured in the magazine "Time."

Judy Innerasky, to the governor is private secretary,
She shortens his troubles and makes his days merry.

Eileen Jakubowicz is the owner of a huge corporation,
She owns three new cadillacs and a Southern Plantation.

Anita Jarvis, as a wonderful wife and mother,
Loves her job and would accept no other.

A graduate of F.S.T.C., Ellie Joyce, a well-known scholar,
Teaches in the new high school where she earned her first dollar.

Gail Kirby, with gab was gifted,
Many a heart and spirit she has lifted.

Walter Klarner, a scientist of note,
Outmoded Einstein with the theories he wrote.

Maureen Kobus is a secretary we see,
She spends the day on her boss' knee.

An exclusive store where you really should stop,
Is Marjorie Kraemer's famous hat shop.

Elaine Krysiak owns a department store,
To her life is never a bore.

Larry Kuettner's style wins approbation,
So his name is read o'er all the nation.

Bob Kulaga, in a nearby school,
Is teaching his students how to play pool.

Eileen Lahti, in court spends the day,
As a public secretary she gets quite the pay.

Connie LaPalme, we now see,
Showing the latest from "Gay Paree."

Dick Lozier's date list is very long,
He's a firm believer in Wine, Women and Song.

John Luszcz next we see,
Working diligently as can be.

Amid Society's social whirl,
Ruth Macora is a well-known girl.

Confronting engineer Makosiej is a job specific,
That of building a tunnel under the Pacific.

Carol Martin is going abroad,
To see the Statues the Masters' Laud.

A reporter, flitting here and there,
Gloria Mason, a big story never does spare.

Sophie Matyszewski, just back from France,
After the breakup of her latest romance.

A Physical trainer Al MacCracken became,
And now he teaches many a game.

Carol McGinnis, petite and blonde,
Of her delicacies, we are fond.

Bob McKee, an executive of great renown,
Has an office in his old home town.

Teaching teenagers how to drive,
Danny McLaughlin is fit to be tied.

Bernie McMahon has many fans,
Playing for the Celtics, he's really grand.

In gay Paree, a model of fashion,
Barb McNamara, all records is smashin'.

Judy Mitton now holds command,
She's leading lady of the land.

Lottie Moody teaches every foreign tongue,
To eager pupils, old and young.

Tony Morabito is known across the seas,
As a Comic of great abilities.

In her nurse's uniform of white,
Bonnie Morelli is a pretty sight.

Bob Munter has a teaching position,
In the NEW CHS . . . as mathematician.

Marie Nadolny does surely entertain,
And has much reason to be vain.

Patti Niedzial, a titian haired Miss,
Is now enjoying wedded bliss.

Betty Nicholas, a woman of very little noise,
Is director of a school for neatness and poise.

Janice Noppa, at her desk,
At CHS she does her best.

Hedy Nosek has a fine position,
As a successful Pediatrician.

An interest in Helen Nosek, men never lose,
Because of her extraordinary views.

For gay societies sake,
In many socials, Skip Nosek partakes.

Betty Notaro's name quite tops the list,
As a reputable physiotherapist

Patti O'Connell works very diligently,
Which is proven by her work, as one can see.

Pat O'Connor's busy adding monstrous columns,
Her success fills many volumes.

The great theaters, a crowd does fill,
To see Sheila O'Day, an actress of great skill.

A solitaire is seen on Pat O'Malley's left hand,
And soon there will be a wedding band.

Harold Ogilvie, is that he,
As Admiral of our huge navy?

Sandy Pelletier, of course is the one,
To teach how good bookkeeping should be done.

John Pianowski, as a mathematician great,
Brings great honor to the Old Bay State.

A dancer on the world's best stages,
Bob Pierce is earning great wages.

Frank Prior is a great Cassanova,
He now owns a harem in West Eastover.

"To beautify" is Dottie Pupecki's trade,
And her reputation has been made.

Earnestly working on a jury case,
Richard Pupecki sets the pace.

Blanche Quail will succeed, and much work she will do,
As a friend in need, so good and true.

Charlie Quail at our next glance,
Is now ambassador to France.

Peter Radock, who knows a lot about cars,
Was the first to ride in a taxi on Mars.

Leonard Rainville works very hard,
May his success, nothing retard.

Ernest Regonini plays the game,
As an inventor of everlasting fame.

Pete Regonini, with his wit and charm,
Is a famous playboy, a girl on each arm.

A traveling salesman, now we spy,
Jim Richards, makes everyone want to buy.

Arlene Rockwell is a nurse we hear,
Bringing her patients health and cheer.

If you want a dancer of great renown,
Earlene Rockwood should be easily found.

Mary Rutkowski, by her patients is awaited,
For to her profession, she is duly mated.

First choice to the All American Football Team,
Mickey Ryan, now reigns supreme.

Walter Ryan, a famous muscle man,
Leaves Charles Atlas without a fan.

In Madame's Shop, sweet and trim,
Is Judy Sargent, a mannequin.

Making friends on every hand,
Madeline Sargent moves o'er the land.

Mike Sawyer is now a famous surgeon,
For his work has won the world's Approbation.

As secretary to a millionaire,
Pat Sesia has a perserverance rare.

Brian Shaughnessy proposed to a sweet little girl,
And lives outside of the social whirl.

Because he is a Doctor clever,
To cure his patients, Ralph Sleeper does endeavor.

Bob Silvester, former football star,
Is coaching a team which has no par.

Karen Sorel, next comes into sight,
She looks so charming in her suit of white.

Bob St. John, a famous architect,
Just designed the first indestructible jet.

Virginia Tatro whispers soon that she,
A millionaire's bride will be.

Pat Tessier works from morn to night,
Whatever she does she surely does right.

Far, far away from her old home,
Ann Thompson is lecturing to the boys of Rome.

Terry Tor, who arose with rapid rate,
Is now the best athlete in our state.

As a clever member of the bar,
Francis Turini is known near and far.

Lois Utley is quite the rage,
As a performer on the Broadway stage.

As a renowned Master in Wall Street,
John Vattes holds all men at his feet.

As Congressman from the state of Maine,
Joe Vitone has attained his aim.

Now with great surprise we see,
Mary Walsh, a ruler of society.

Rosemary Walsh is a famous designer now,
And to her all women bow.

Betty Wiencek acquired a good position,
At Worcester City Hospital, as a Lab Technician.

Seated behind a desk in an office of style,
Is Janet Winn, operating an automatic file.

Dick Witgenstein, now in Senate Hall,
A listening throng does enthrall.

James Young is a representative of dear old Mass.,
And has brought much credit to his class.

A statesman, very noble and great,
Has come to be Joe Zelny's fate.

. . . Last Will and Testament

Be it remembered that we, the Class of Nineteen hundred and fifty-nine of Clinton High School, in the town of Clinton in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, being of questionably sound mind and memory, but knowing the uncertainty of life, do make this, our last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all claims for class dues and graduation charges and bequeathing as follows:

One of the most eagerly anticipated events of our high school career took place June 6, 1958. Our Junior Prom was the most exquisitely decorated in many a year. The transformation of the Town Hall into a colorful and beautiful authentically Japanese scene will long be remembered by the many couples who danced beneath the twinkling colored lights of the crystal ball. The theme, "Sayonara," was dominated by a colorful, eye-catching Pagoda fashioned in typical Japanese style and enhanced by lighted Japanese lanterns, branches of cherry blossoms, and a bubbling fountain. The entrance was set off by potted ferns and the tables surrounding the hall were set apart from the dance floor by a garden wall covered with climbing vines.

The entertainment for the evening was provided by Dick Williams' orchestra.

At 10:30 the grand march was held under the capable direction of Mr. Joseph P. Burgwinkle, our class advisor. At the conclusion of the grand march, the announcement of the queen and her court held the rapt attention of the many spectators. Mary P. Gibbons, '59, was selected Queen and her court consisted of Barbara Hamilton '59, Barbara McNamara '59, Ann Mill '60, Janice Nicoletti '58, Elizabeth Notaro '59, and Arlene Rockwell '59.

As the last strains of the haunting music faded away, we were aware of an indescribable feeling of happiness and contentment, knowing that this spectacular Prom was a fitting climax to a very wonderful and prosperous Junior year.

MARDI GRAS

The outstanding social event of any Senior year is the annual Hop. On February 6, 1959, in the Fallon Memorial Auditorium, the Class of 1959 held their last formal. The hall had been transformed into a captivating scene of a "Mardi Gras," with colorful lanterns and dragon tails. A beautiful array of streamers, dominated by an enormous Top Hat, which showered balloons, confetti and streamers upon the dancers was one of the most captivating attractions. Music for the evening was provided by the Dick Williams' Orchestra. The highlight of the evening was the selection of Elizabeth Notaro as Queen of the Senior Hop. Her court was composed of Trudy Halloran, Eileen Jakubowicz Sheila Keblin, Patricia O'Connell, Dorothy Pupecki, and Arlene Rockwell. Over two hundred couples attended and we were humbly grateful with the many expressions of delight for another never-to-be-forgotten Senior Hop of Clinton High School.

After three successful presentations, it was a very self-assured group that was to bow to an excellent Junior presentation on December 30, 1958.

Our play was entitled, "The Stuffed Shirt," and was capably presented by a veteran cast. The play revolved around the efforts of a young man to represent himself as a "big shot," only to be exposed, but accepted by his girl because of his sincere desire to succeed.

It was a rather disappointed group who were to receive the news that the Juniors had upset them. However, we were quick to acknowledge the excellence of their performance and wish them continued success.

With two successful presentations behind us, we confidently faced the footlights in the rollicking comedy, "Charge It, Please." This was the story of a harassed father who tried to bring a scatterbrained wife and her offspring to a realization of the value of money, only to fall prey to their extravagance in the end.

Even though our play was well received, we were unable to unseat the mighty Seniors and once again we had to settle for second place. However, we derived some measure of comfort from the fact that Sheila O'Day was acclaimed "Best Actress of the Year."

On December 26, 1956, our Sophomore cast appeared on stage in the riotous comedy, "Deferential Kindness." This comedy, about a beautiful girl and the machinations of her younger brother who was constantly interfering in her social affairs, and who did, in fact, manage to turn the tables on her, afforded the large audience a most enjoyable evening. Our performance was acclaimed by all the critics.

This play was perhaps our best effort of all and we very nearly carried home all the honors. However, after all the votes were tabulated, we found that we had finished a close second to the Seniors.

One of the highlights of our Freshman year was the annual interclass dramatics competition, presented in the Town Hall, April 13, 1956. Needless to say, it was a rather frightened young group of thespians who faced the bright lights that night.

The title of our first presentation was, "Paul Wrecks the Car," starring Billy Flannagan as Paul. It was a very humorous account of the problems a young man faces when he wrecks the family car on his first date.

While we didn't win any prizes, most critics agreed that we gave a creditable performance, considering our inexperience, and we confidently looked forward to next year.

A valuable and colorful adjunct to any athletic event are the energetic cheerleaders and band. The cheers were led this year by a particularly versatile and vivacious group under the leadership of Co-Captains Nancy Allard and Bonita Morelli, who were ably assisted by Patricia O'Connell and Dorothy Pupecki. They in turn were also aided and abetted by a devoted band, under the direction of Mr. Donald Markey and headed by Lois Utley, featuring Earlene Rockwood and Carolyn Coccione among a fine collection of twirlers. We commend both groups for their unselfish devotion and sparkling interpretation of the intricate maneuvers which contributed so much to the enjoyment of the spectators.

End

For the second straight year the "Gaels" began their season under the guidance of a new coach. This year, the reins were handed to John Hester, a former University of Illinois standout. He was capably assisted by Line Coach Guy Barassi and Freshman Coach Joseph Lockwood.

Dick Lozier triggered a backfield composed of Bob Silvester and Pete Regonini at the halves, with Co-Captain Mike Burdell at fullback. These boys were supported by a stalwart group of linemen which included: Terry Tor, at center; Brian Shaughnessy, Jack Joyce and Co-Captain Mickey Ryan, guards; Bernie McMahon, Dan McLaughlin and John Luszcz, tackles. Co-Captain Mike Duffy, Eddie Bonin and Mike McNally teamed up to protect the flanks.

The season was not successful as far as wins and losses were concerned. The boys had only one win, over Hudson High, to show for their efforts. However, this was due in large measure to a succession of injuries which severely hampered the team, especially during the latter part of the season. With a little luck, the boys might easily have chalked-up a couple of other wins.

Nevertheless, most observers felt that the coaches succeeded in establishing a new system, and provided the younger members of the cast with sufficient experience to make them the nucleus of a future winner.

Track

After an absence of more than twenty years, track was resumed last year under Coach Bob Whelan. This year Coach Jack Hester is working with a fine group of hopefuls and has planned a list of informal meets with such schools as Lunenburg, Notre Dame of Fitchburg, Athol, Marlboro, Webster, Milford (N. H.), and the schools in the Central Massachusetts Conference.

Capt. Dick Lozier, Coach Wm. F. Gosselin

BASKET

The 1958 "Gael" basketball squad could boast of only one win, a 37-25 conquest of Maynard High. However, the boys were very seldom completely outclassed and, while they were frequently disappointed, they were, in most of their games, right down to the wire. Lack of experience and proper facilities for practice were the reasons most often cited for the Gaels' dismal showing. With a new gym in the offing and the experience gained this year, the prospects look considerably brighter for the '60 squad.

Captain Dick Lozier, a unanimous choice for Midland League All-Star honors; Mike Burdell, Mike Duffy, John Pianowski, Mickey Ryan and Frank Prior, were the Senior members of the squad. These boys were ably supported by Co-Captains-elect Dave Ahearn and Mike McNally. Some other bright prospects for the future were Jim McLaughlin, Jack Joyce, Dom Pizza and Dick Rymsza.

Baseball . . .

As we go to press, the "Gaels" have copped three straight wins and are currently sharing the top rung of the Central Massachusetts Baseball Conference with the formidable Northbridge Rams. The wins include an 8-2 conquest of Hudson, a 5-4 win over Auburn, and a come-from-behind 6-5 decision over Wachusett Regional. In succeeding weeks the boys will meet aforementioned Northbridge, Shrewsbury, and arch-rivals Marlboro, Maynard and Milford.

For the remainder of the season Coach Gosselin will rotate a pitching staff composed of southpaw George Makosiej and righthanders Ed Bonin and Joe Dintino. In the outfield, Mike Duffy, Jackie DeCesare and Co-Captain Dick Lozier make up a hard-hitting trio; the reserve strength includes Dom Pizza, Joe Cislak and Mike Flaherty. Co-Captain Mike Burdell heads a smooth-functioning infield, which includes Bob Kulaga, Frank Prior and John Luszcz, with Pete Regonini and Tony O'Laughlin in reserve. The catching is capably handled by Connie Chiavaris and Mike Sawyer.
